If you could go anywhere in the world, where would you go and why?

Africa because I would love to see first hand all the issues surrounding my people. I think by seeing it myself, it would provoke a reaction in me which will then ensure an action for me to do what I can to help, be it big or small.

If you could be on the cover of any magazine, which one would it be and why would you be on the cover?

ESSENCE because I feel their customer is exactly the type of woman I am and still growing into. They cater to a very successful, sophisticated black woman who understands who she is. It represents a woman interested in bettering herself in different ways and always looking for something new.
