- quote: "There are no rules for how we conduct ourselves within our minds."

If you could go anywhere in the world, where would you go and why?

Kien Giang province in the southern tip of Viet Nam. My parents are both from Viet Nam. I was born in the U.S. and have not had the opportunity to go there yet. I identify strongly with the rich heritage that comes from my parents. The Kien Giang province is where my mother grew up and lived until she moved to the U.S. We still have family there and I would like to meet them.

If you could be on the cover of any magazine, which one would it be and why would you be on the cover?

Forbes Magazine. It represents the high caliber achievements of people in business, entrepreneurship, and other high society industries. With my background in Fashion, I see myself becoming a successful entrepreneur within the fashion industry, similar to Ralph Lauren. I know a little of what it takes and plan to be that person trailblazing especially for the minority population.
